On Anothers Sorrow
Can I see anothers woe.
And not be in sorrow too.
Can I see anothers grief.
And not seek for kind relief.
Can I see a falling tear.
And not feel my sorrows share.
Can a father see his child
Weep, nor be with sorrow filld.
Can a mother sit and hear.
An infant groan an infant fear.—
No no never can it be.
Never never can it be.
And can he who smiles on all
Hear the wren with sorrows small.
Hear the small birds grief & care
Hear the woes that infants bear.
And not sit beside the nest
Pouring pity in their breast.
And not sit the cradle near
Weeping tear an infants tear.
And not sit both night & day.
Wiping all our tears away.
O! no never can it be.
Never never can it be.
He doth give his joy to all.
He becomes an infant small.
He becomes a man of woe
He doth feel the sorrow too
Think not thou canst sigh a sigh
And thy maker is not by.
Think not thou canst weep a tr
And thy maker is not near.
O! he gives to us his joy.
That our grief he may destroy
Till our grief is fled & gone
He doth sit by us and moan.
